That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are being renewed every day. For our present troubles are small and won't last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever!

So we don't look at the troubles we can see now;
rather, we fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen.

For the things we see now will soon be gone,
but the things we cannot see will last forever.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18 (NLT)

The 'small' troubles    What Paul also saw

|-----|--|---|
| v7  | We ourselves are like fragile clay jars  | containing this great treasure.   |
| v8  | We are pressed on every side by troubles | but we are not crushed  |
|     | v8                                       | We are perplexed but not driven to despair.                                 |
|     | v9                                       | We are hunted down but never abandoned by God                               |
|     | v9                                       | We get knocked down but we are not destroyed                                |
| v11 | We live under constant danger of death   | so that the life of Jesus will be evident in our                            |
|     | because we serve Jesus                   | dying bodies  |
|     | v12                                      | We live in the face of death but this has resulted in eternal life for you. |

there will be great thanksgiving, and God will receive more and more glory.

But even if he doesn’t, we want to make it clear to you, Your Majesty, that we will never serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up.”

'When I got back to my cell,
I said, 'God, I asked you to set me free, not kill me.'
God spoke to me and said, 'Andrew, I have set you free from the inside out, I have given you life!'
From that moment on I haven't stopped worshipping Him.
I had never sung before, never led worship,
until Jesus set me free.'

The thief comes only to steal and kill
and destroy;

I have come that they
may have life,
and have it to the full.
