A Revolution of Love

They may take our lives,
but they'll never take OUR FREEDOM!

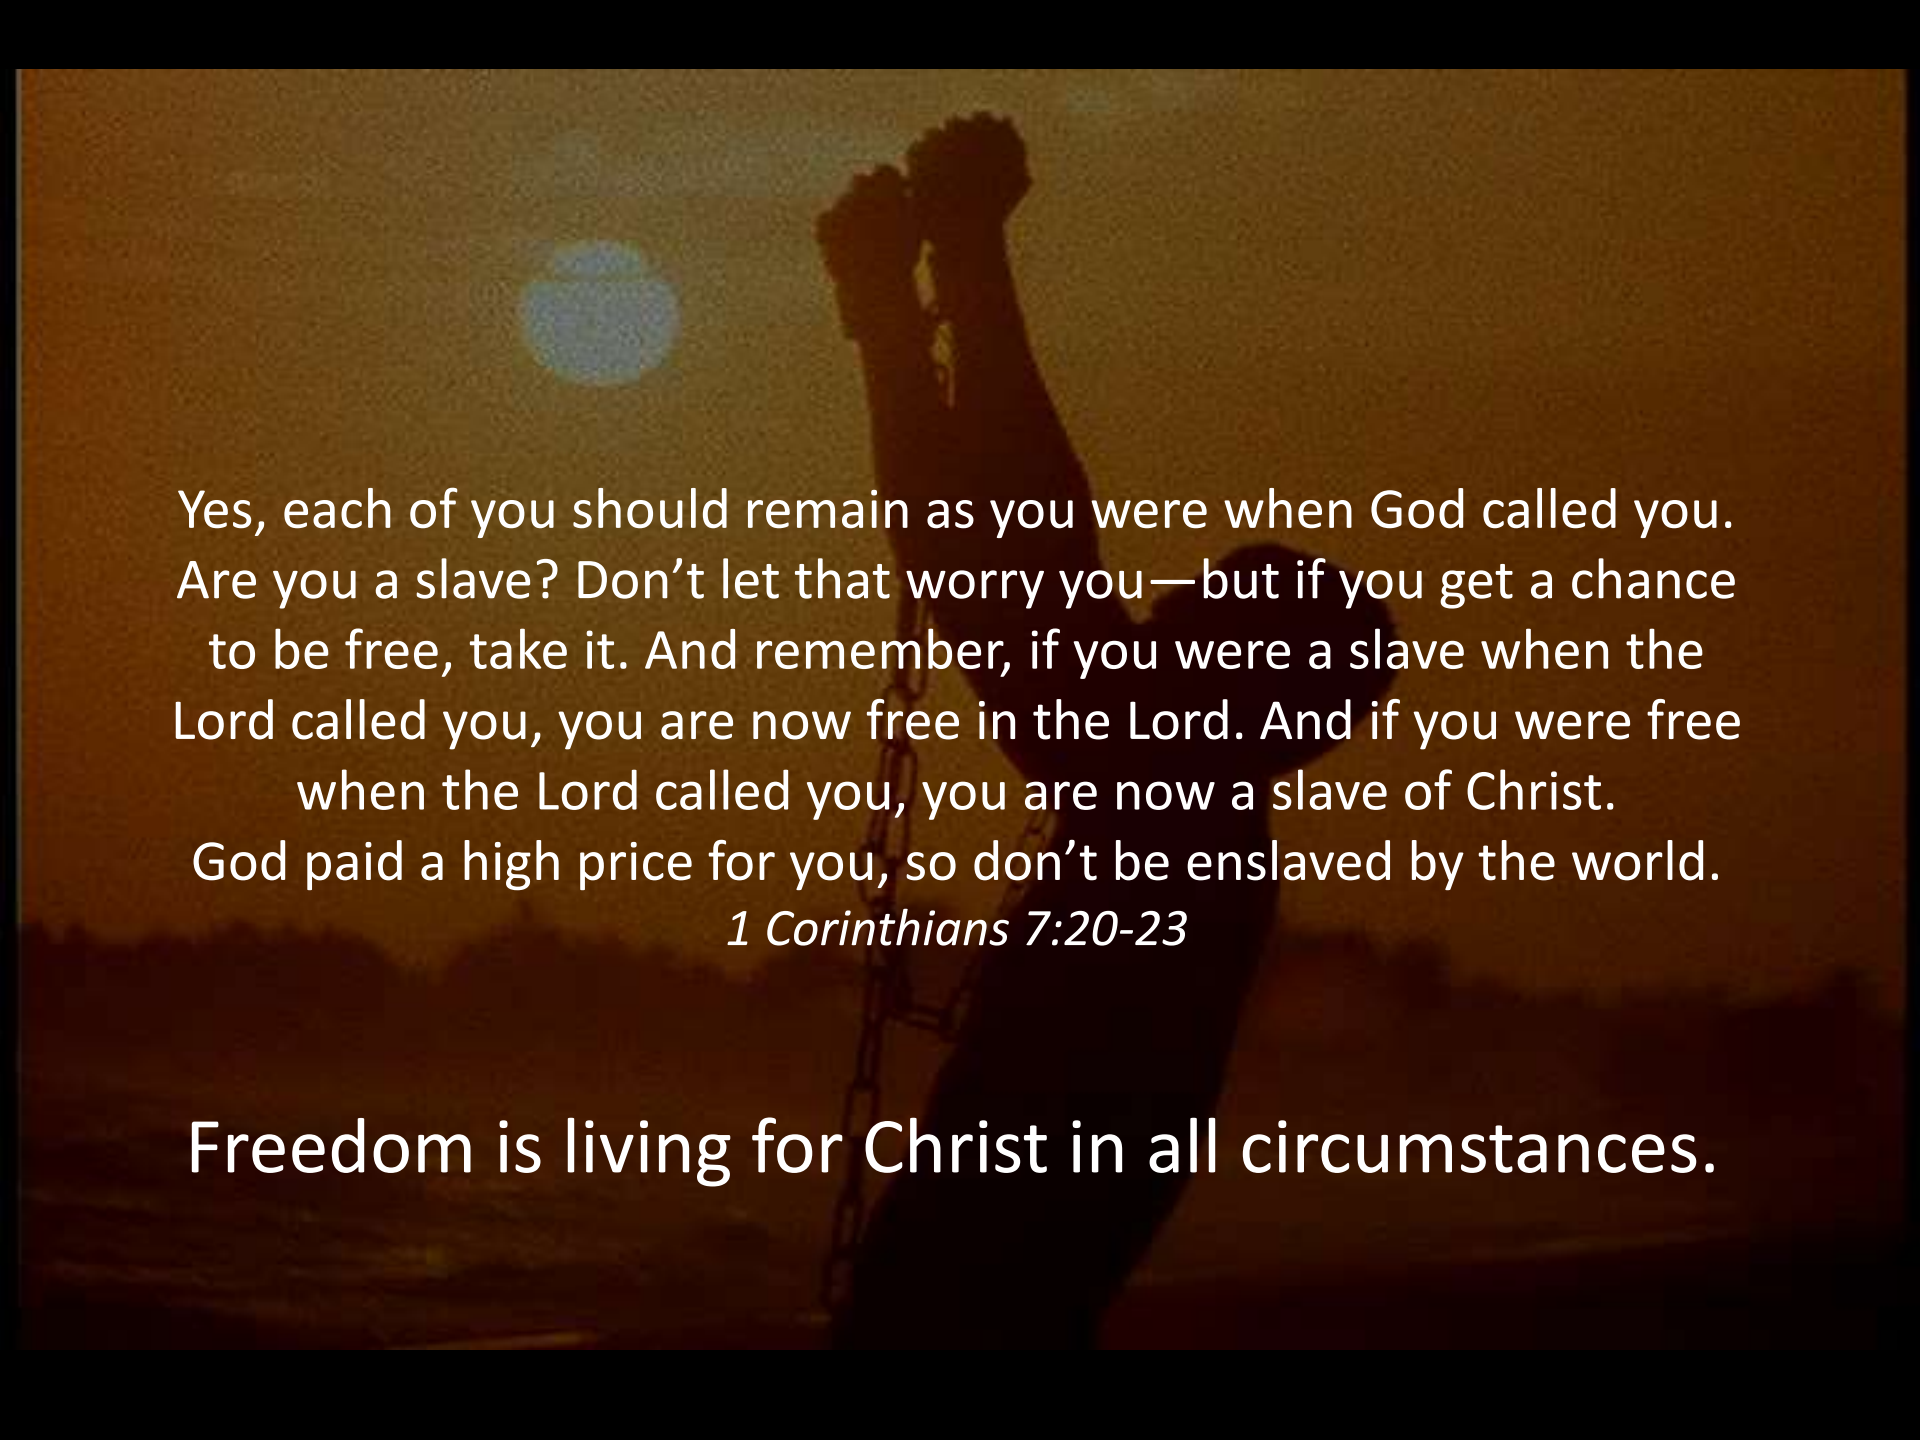

A silhouette of a person breaking chains against a sunset. The person is shown from the waist up, with their arms raised and hands breaking through a chain. The background is a warm, golden sunset over a body of water, with the sun low on the horizon. The overall mood is one of liberation and triumph.

So if the Son
sets you free,
you will be free indeed.

John 8:36

A silhouette of a person breaking chains at sunset. The person is shown from the waist up, with their arms raised and hands breaking through a chain. The background is a warm, golden sunset over a body of water, with the sun low on the horizon. The overall mood is one of liberation and triumph.

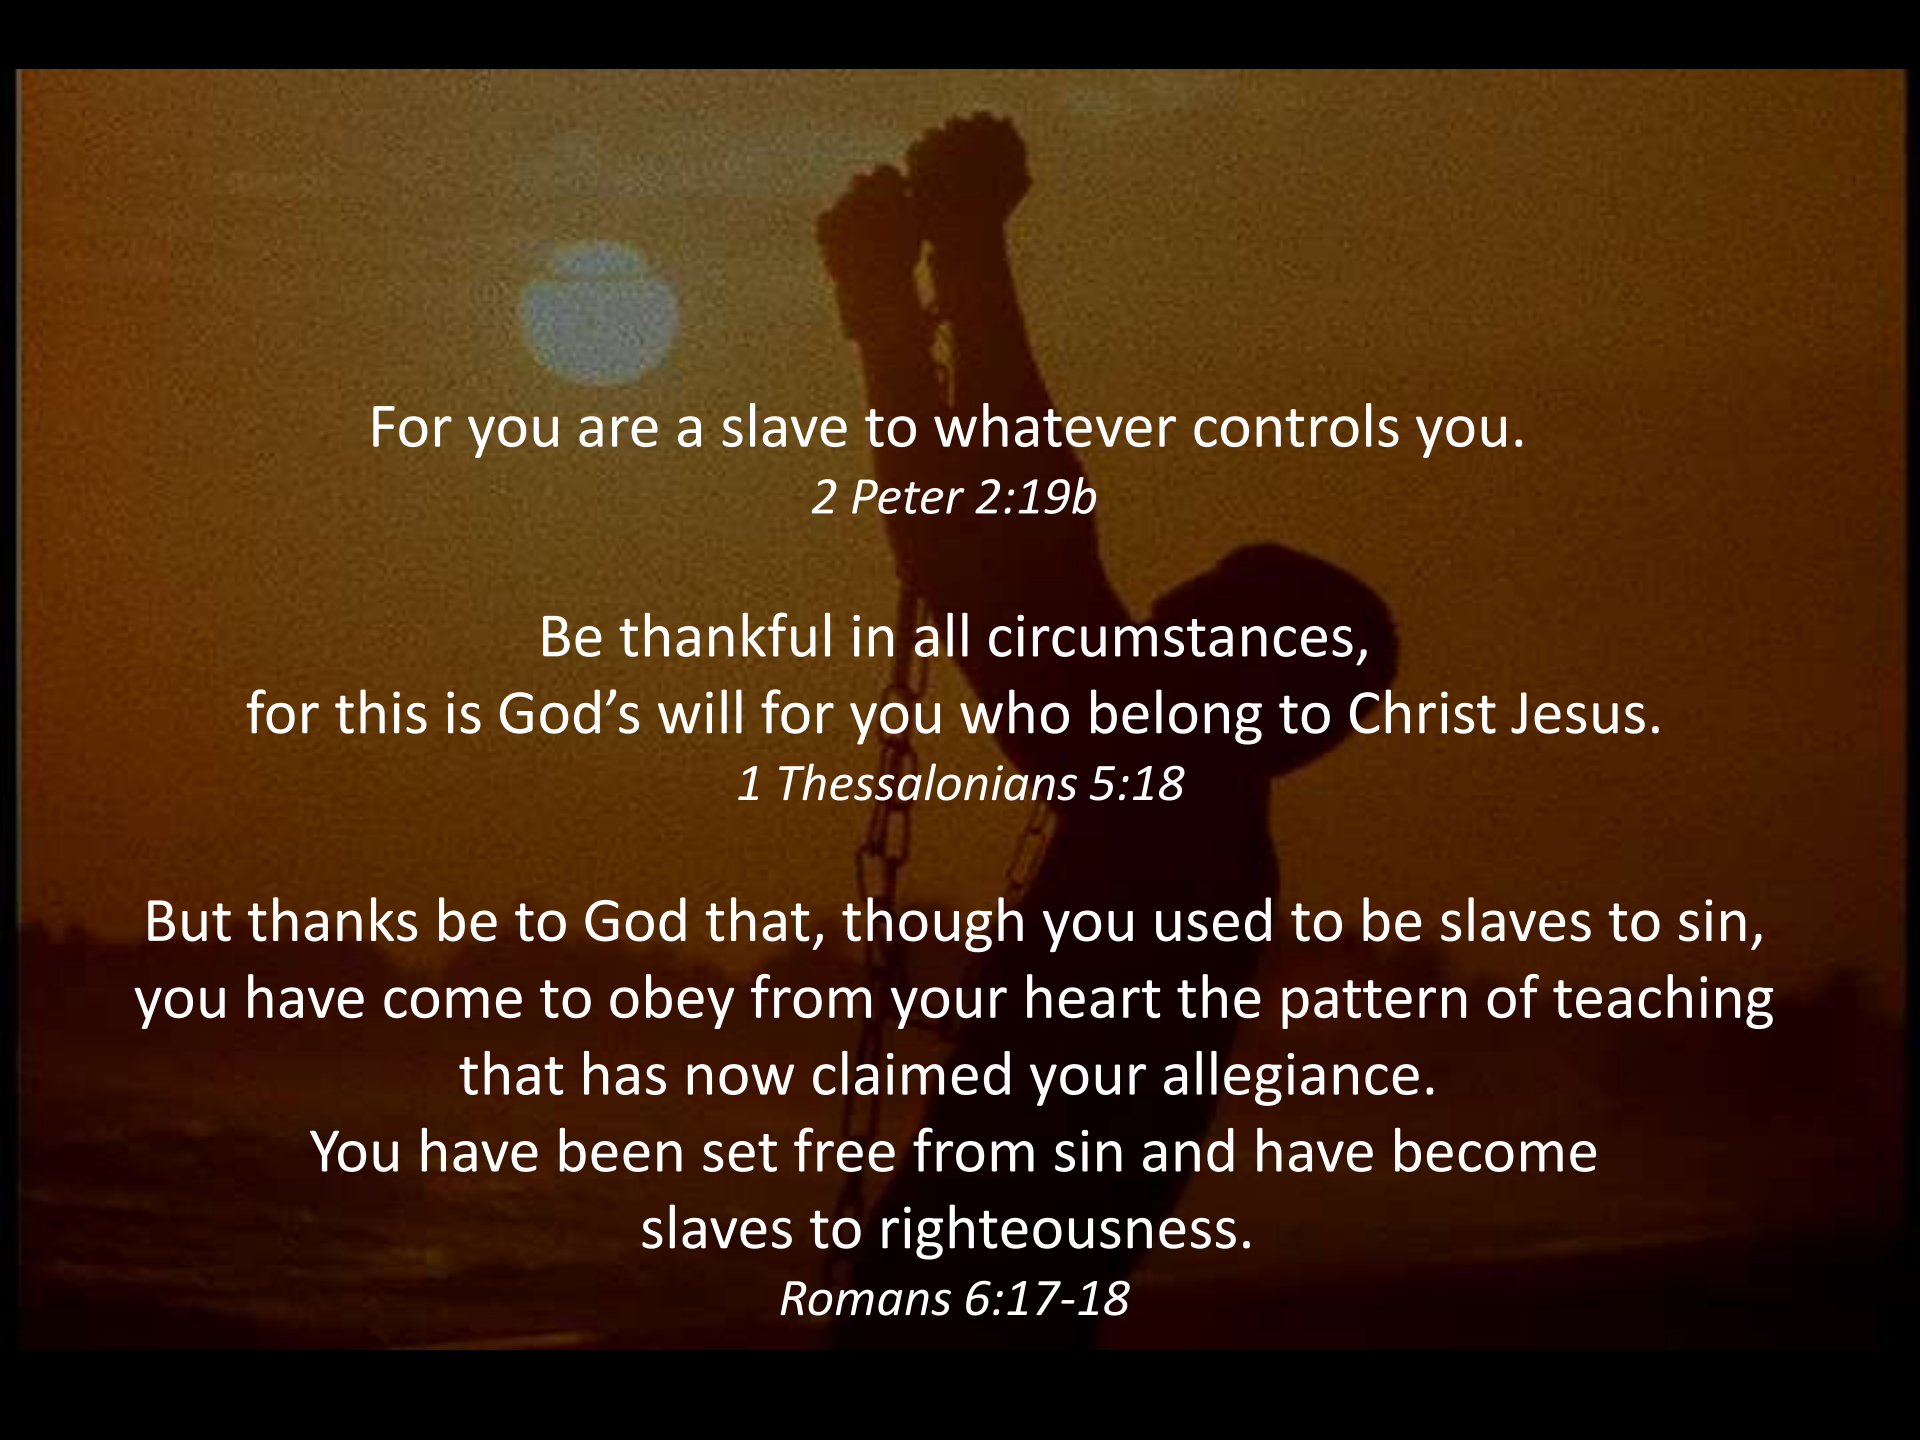

Our understanding of FREEDOM changes our perspective and our ability to make decisions.

Yes, each of you should remain as you were when God called you. Are you a slave? Don't let that worry you—but if you get a chance to be free, take it. And remember, if you were a slave when the Lord called you, you are now free in the Lord. And if you were free when the Lord called you, you are now a slave of Christ. God paid a high price for you, so don't be enslaved by the world.

1 Corinthians 7:20-23

Freedom is living for Christ in all circumstances.

For you are a slave to whatever controls you.

2 Peter 2:19b

Be thankful in all circumstances,
for this is God's will for you who belong to Christ Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

But thanks be to God that, though you used to be slaves to sin, you have come to obey from your heart the pattern of teaching that has now claimed your allegiance.

You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness.

Romans 6:17-18

A silhouette of a person with long hair, wearing a light-colored long-sleeved shirt, stands with their back to the camera. Their arms are raised high in the air, palms facing up. The background is a dramatic sunset or sunrise sky, with a bright sun low on the horizon, creating a gradient of colors from yellow and orange near the sun to a darker blue and purple at the top. The overall mood is one of freedom, hope, and spiritual reflection.

Are we living like we're free?
Are we living like we're slaves of Christ?
